

Woven Women is a Baptist Resource Network community that is designed to support the women who lead in our local churches.

Who we are

From its prayerful inception, Woven Women has been an organic entity designed to encourage and enable women's ministry leaders to connect and network with their colleagues across the PA/SJ region. As we all forge these meaningful relationships the results will be mutually beneficial. You make the real connections because you best know the needs of your ministry. We are here to help you problem solve, determine goals and next steps, and to provide resources.

Our monthly newsletter provides creative ministry ideas directly from the field, ideas for future events, an inspirational blog and more.

Some of our offerings in 2023 will include quarterly workshops held in different geographic areas, as well as occasional Zoom events.

Most importantly, we are your built-in prayer warriors, blanketing your Christian walk, your leadership development, and the individuals in your sphere of influence. If you have specific requests please let us know so we can pray for you.

What we offer

Woven Women

Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into Him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

-Ephesians 4:15-16

Mary Landis

Women's Ministry Consultant

Mary has been involved in women's ministry for over a decade. She currently leads the women's ministry at Rolling Hills Church in Verona, Pennsylvania. She has been married to her husband Chad for over 20 years, and they have three children.

Mary has seen her role in women's ministry grow and transform. She has a passion for seeing women come to know Christ, grow in their relationship with Him, disciple one another, and develop deep bonds to accomplish God's work through the intricate tapestry of their varied gifts.

Mary has a heart for those struggling with infertility, people with disabilities and those who have walked through the darkness of sexual abuse. She loves to see the Holy Spirit transform women's lives.

Debbie Knowles

Woven Women Assistant

Debbie Knowles is blessed to be a pastor's wife, mom and new grandma. She and her husband, Tom, have been serving at Christian House Baptist Chapel for over 12 years, and have been engaged in Kingdom work for nearly three decades, including a beloved eight years of youth and drama ministry.

Debbie has a heart for women, especially those who struggle with low self-esteem and the destructive choices born of it, which is a large part of her personal testimony. She loves to see the Lord's transformational work as women receive Christ and realize that they are His beautiful masterpieces.

Debbie is passionate about the Lord, and focuses her free time on family, home, painting/sketching and perennial gardening.

Beth Whitworth

Pastors' Wives Ministry Consultant

Beth Whitworth is the wife of Barry, a missionary, pastor and currently the Executive Director/Treasurer for the Baptist Resource Network of PA/SJ. They celebrate their union of over 40 years and are the parents of two grown daughters, two sons-in-love and six grandchildren.

Beth is passionate about caring for the wives and families of ministers in PA/SJ. Previously in children's ministry, missions education, youth ministry and women's discipleship, as a pastor's wife and church planting missionary, she has also counseled women and conducted premarital counseling. She has been in Christian service for over 28 years.

Beth is also a prayer warrior who believes constant communication with the Father is vital for the disciple of Jesus Christ.
